

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY™
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

Master of Arts in Teaching in Community College Education (CCE)

Location: Allen Hall, Room 248

Program Coordinator: Dr. Stephanie King (sking@colled.msstate.edu)

Applications are accepted at any time.

- Completion of a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution
- Transcripts of college work; minimum GPA of 2.75 on last half of bachelor's degree work
- Letters of recommendation
- Statement of purpose
- Acceptable score for each of the sections (verbal, quantitative, analytical, and writing) of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). The GRE score must be current (no more than 5 years old).

Course Requirements: Minimum of 30 credit hours required for the Master of Arts in Teaching Degree in Community College Education.

Required Courses: Community College Leadership Core (Minimum of 9 Credit Hours)

CCL 8113 – Community College History/Philosophy (3 credit hours)

CCL 8313 – Community College Instructional Assessment (3 credit hours)

CCL 8173 – Community College Teaching and Learning (3 credit hours)

Required Courses: Research (Minimum of 3 Credit Hours)

EDF 8363 – Functions and Methods of Research in Education (3 credit hours)

Required Courses: Teaching Specialty/Content Area (Minimum of 18 Credit Hours)

The degree prepares educators for service in rural community colleges and requires a minimum of 18 credit hours in the student's teaching field. All courses should have the same prefix.

Notes

In addition to completing the courses listed above, students must successfully pass the written comprehensive examination. A student must be enrolled at Mississippi State University during the semester in which the comprehensive examination is taken.

Each student is responsible for knowing university, college, and department or school requirements, as stated in the current Graduate School Bulletin and in college and department or school printed materials.